Singer and actress Jean Garner brings you an evening of beloved jazz, Great American Songbook favorites, and pop standards — celebrating the charm of spring and romance.

Garner has appeared at New York's Green Room 42, Laurie Beechman Theatre, Lincoln Center, and on regional stages and was a featured vocalist in this March's Lady Got Chops Women's Music Festival. Join her again on June 6 in Mount Kisco! www.jean-garner.com.

She is performing with James Brandfonbrener (piano), a musician, composer, and teacher who regularly performs at diverse venues across NYC, such as The Cutting Room, 54 Below, and Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall.

Garner will donate a portion of her proceeds to Girls, Inc., which fosters mentoring and empowerment for girls.
